

Vittorio Da Rold

Vittorio Da Rold, 57 years old, is a senior foreign correspondent at Il Sole 24 ore, the Italian financial daily, one of the most influential daily newspaper edited in Milan. Correspondent in Warsaw in 1994 covering Polish transition to free market economy, in 2000-2005 covered France, currently, deals with economic and political issues as euro, EU stability Pact, EU enlargement. In 2009, covered Iran presidential election, in 2010-12 covered the Greek crisis and Dutch election.